

such act. The Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare is directed to perform this review at the request of the claimant on all denied and pending claims filed under part B of title IV of the Act, exclusive of those claims filed under section 415. The Secretary of Labor is directed to perform this review automatically on all claims filed under section 415 and part C of title IV of the Act, which were denied or pending as of the effective date of the Black Lung Benefits Reform Act of 1977, and in addition is required to review certain claims originally filed with the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare.

(d) The new section 435 contains provisions setting forth the scope of the claims review, the procedures to be followed and the consequences which accrue depending upon the results of any particular review. It is the purpose of this part to set forth and implement the provisions of section 435 as those provisions apply to the Secretary of Labor, and inform all interested parties of the manner in which a right to review will be extended with respect to all denied and pending claims for black lung benefits under the act by the Secretary of Labor.

§ 727.2 Applicability and content of this part.

(a) This part is designed to apply to, and set forth the role of, the Secretary of Labor in carrying out the provisions of section 435 of the act. The action to be taken and the procedure to be followed by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare and the Social Security Administration under section 435 is detailed elsewhere. This part will, however, describe what will be done by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare and the Social Security Administration in general terms and will detail the responsibilities assigned to the Secretary of Labor with respect to a claim reviewed by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare.

(b) This subpart A describes generally the statutory framework established to facilitate the review of all pending and denied black lung claims, the applicability and content of this part and other relevant parts contained in this title 20 of the Code of Federal Regulations, and sets forth applicable definitions and usages.

(c) Subpart B of this part sets forth the procedures to be followed in the review of various types of claims subject to review under this part.

(d) Subpart C of this part contains the criteria to be applied in determining a claimant's eligibility for benefits under this part. Such criteria shall also be applicable to all claims for medical services filed under section 11 of the Black Lung Benefits Reform Act of 1977 (see § 725.308(b) of this subchapter), and shall also be applicable to all other claims filed under part 725 of this subpart until such time as the Secretary promulgates new criteria for determining total disability or death due to pneumoconiosis in accordance with section 402(f)(1) of the act.

(e) Subpart D of this part contains provisions relating to the liability for, and conditions governing, the payment of benefits under this part.

(f) Subpart E of this part sets forth special provisions relating to the processing of claims subject to review under this part which are within the jurisdiction of an administrative law judge or the Benefits Review Board.

§ 727.3 Definitions, use of terms.

Except as is otherwise provided by this part, the definitions and usages of terms contained in subpart A of part 725 of this title, as amended from time to time, shall be applicable to this part.

§ 727.4 Applicability of other parts in this subchapter.

(a) Part 725. Part 725 of this subchapter, which sets forth: (1) The procedure for filing a claim for black lung benefits under part C of title IV of the act, (2) the procedure to be followed in the adjudication of claims so filed, (3) standards for determining whether a particular individual is a miner, or a qualified dependent or survivor of a miner, (4) the criteria to be applied in determining the liability of a coal operator or the fund for the payment of approved claims so filed, and (5) the manner in which the payment of benefits shall be made with respect to part C claims, shall not be applicable to the
